

Therefore, I find and conclude that: (1) the plea is knowing, intelligent, and voluntary; (2) there is a factual basis for the plea; (3) the provisions of Rule 11 and any other provisions of the law governing the submission of guilty pleas have been complied with; (4) a petition to enter a plea of guilty, on a form approved by the court, was completed by Acosta, Acosta's counsel and counsel for the government, and such petition was placed in the court file; (5) the plea agreement is in writing and is filed in the court file; (6) there were no other agreements or stipulations other than as contained in the written plea agreement.

IT IS RECOMMENDED TO JUDGE LAURIE SMITH CAMP that:

1. She accept the guilty plea and find the defendant, Adrian Acosta, guilty of the crime set forth in Count I of the Indictment to which Acosta tendered a guilty plea;
2. She not accept the written plea agreement at this time as it contains a provision under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(C), but rather she consider the agreement at the time of sentencing.
